The Celebration of Worship

REFORMATION WEEKEND

Before worship, talk to God. During worship, let God talk to you.

After worship, talk to your fellow worshiper.

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a "blend" of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of "Word & Sacrament." Therefore, "God's Word" is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week, including the baptized of all ages. As we begin our worship, all are invited to "examine themselves" (1 Cor.11:28) during the Confession as we prepare to receive the Word and Holy Communion. Children of all ages may receive the sacrament! However, if parents prefer, small children may receive a grape given with the words, "Welcome to the Lord's Table."

Confirmation Question of the Week:
Where do you think our world is in need of "reformation?" How about the church? How about you...where is "reformation" needed?"

Reformation

Weekend

October 31, 2010

Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the door of Wittenberg church on the eve of All Saints Day in 1517. What began as an invitation to students and faculty to debate one of the more controversial topics of the day eventually led to the formation of a new Church. The roots of our congregation lie in that movement.

Luther's concern was that the Church was selling indulgences – special pardons which permitted people to shorten their time in Purgatory. The Scriptures said that grace was free, and he wasn't comfortable with the Church selling something that was offered free by God to all who confessed and believed. St. Paul's famous statement, "For by Grace you are saved through faith and not of yourselves. It is a gift of God," along with many other references to Scripture, framed his position.

On Reformation Day, it is appropriate to mention one of our basic theological principles: that we are all sinful and powerless to earn our own salvation. It is one of the foundations on which our individual faith and the faith of the Church rest. As we confess our faith as we worship today, we would do well to remember Luther's explanation of the Third Article of the Creed:

"I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith. In the same way He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian church on earth, and keeps it with Jesus Christ in the one true faith. In this Christian church He daily and richly forgives all my sins and the sins of all believers. On the Last Day He will raise me and all the dead, and give eternal life to me and all believers in Christ."

Lord, send your Spirit to call us. Forgive us, cleanse us, and keep us in the true faith. And on the last day, bring us to eternal life. Amen
Miles Olson

For some of these preschoolers, these will be the first books they have ever owned. (Please no Holiday or Christian themes.) Collection bin is outside room 132, downstairs.

A Moment in History: Reformation

The Reformation was a political and religious movement in Europe that began in the 1500's and lasted for roughly 150 years. It is difficult to pinpoint exact starting and ending dates for the Reformation, but we can point to two events that seem to begin and to culminate the Reformation era: 1517 (Martin Luther's 95 Theses and his protest against the indulgence system of the Roman Catholic Church) and 1648 (The Peace of Westphalia, treaties that thus put an end to most of the civil disruption caused by the religious movement). Did you know that Martin Luther not only post the 95 Theses but also for the first time translated into the common man's language--German--the New Testament. Luther did not set out to start a religious movement, but with his two actions the world gained more freedom of understanding and expression of the Holy Bible in a personal way not seen since Jesus walked the earth.

Today we do not celebrate division. Rather we celebrate the movement of the Holy Spirit in our Church and our hearts. It is this movement of the Holy Spirit that brings us newness and renewal (RE-FORMATION), both in our personal lives and in the life of the Church. When we pray, "Come, Holy Spirit!" we know that the whole Church is always in need of re-form, and we each are always in need of dying again in Christ in order to be raised from the dead, so that we might be truly free by the grace of Jesus the Christ in our lives and Church. "So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed." (John 8:31-36)
